A Note

We are so excited to celebrate our wedding with you, and we'd love for you to please save our date!

As we have so many loved ones on either side of the Atlantic, we have extended our festivities to two dates in two locations.

There is absolutely no pressure or expectation for our guests to attend both events, though you are of course more than welcome to.

We can't wait to spend our special day with you – whether that's in the US, the UK, or both.

Formal invitation to follow; more information can be found at www.jackandshana.com.

With love from,
Shana and Jack
