Celebrant Welcome

Celebrant Poem - Death Is Nothing At All

*Death is nothing at all,
I have only slipped away into the next room
I am I and you are you Whatever we were to each other, that we are still,
Call me by my old familiar name,*

*Speak to me in the same easy way which you always did Put no difference into your tone, Wear no forced air of sorrow Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
play, smile, think of me, remember me.*

*Let my name be the household word that it always was,
Let it be spoken without effect
Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same as it ever was Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?*

*I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near,
Just around the corner. All is well.*

Closing Poem

At the dawn and setting of the sun, you'll think of him.

*At the whistling of the wind and in the cold breeze of Winter, and the opening of flower buds in Spring,
you'll think of him.*

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of Summer, at the rustling of Autumn leaves. You'll think of him.

*When we are low and in need of strength, when we are lost and sick at heart,
you'll think of him.*

When we have joys we want to share, when we have achievements that are based on his, you'll think of him.

As long as we live, he will live too for he is a part of us we will remember him
