Opening Prayer

Reading - Ecclesiastes 3

For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to tear down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn and a time to dance;
a time for throwing stones and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time for losing; a time to keep, and a time
to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

God has made everything suitable for its time.
Whatever God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it or taken away. God has done this so that all should stand in awe before him.
That which is, already has been: that which is to be,
already is: and God seeks out what has gone before.
