

He took me further, then brought me back to the bank of the river. When I got back, there were many trees on each bank of the river. He said, "This water flows east down to the Arabah and to the sea; and flowing into the sea it makes its waters wholesome. Wherever the river flows, all living creatures teeming in it will live. Fish will be very plentiful, for wherever the water goes it brings health, and life teems wherever the river flows. Along the river, on either bank, will grow every kind of fruit tree with leaves that never wither and fruit

Psalm 91:1-4

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."

Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence.

He will cover you with his feathers,
and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

Gospel

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 4:5-42

Jesus came to the Samaritan town called Sychar, near the land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Jacob's well is there and Jesus, tired by the journey, sat straight down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, 'Give me a drink.' His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, 'What? You are a Jew and you ask me, a Samaritan, for a drink?' – Jews, in fact, do not associate with Samaritans. Jesus replied:

'If you only knew what God is offering and who it is that is saying to you: Give me a drink,
you would have been the one to ask,
and he would have given you living water.'

'You have no bucket, sir,' she answered 'and the well is deep:
how could you get this living water?

Are you a greater man than our father Jacob who gave us this well and drank from it himself with his sons and his cattle?' Jesus replied:

'Whoever drinks this water will get thirsty again;
but anyone who drinks the water that I shall give will never be thirsty again:
the water that I shall give will turn into a spring inside them, welling up to eternal life.'

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

By the mystery of your death and resurrection, bathe Poppy in light;
give her the new life of baptism and welcome them into your holy Church.

Lord, hear us.

All: Lord, graciously hear us.

Through baptism and confirmation,
make her your faithful follower and a witness to your gospel.

Lord, hear us.

All: Lord, graciously hear us.

May the affectionate love and care of Felix and Elizabeth for each other help Poppy to know that God is love.

May their lives be examples of faith to inspire her.

Lord, hear us.

All: Lord, graciously hear us.

Renew the grace of our baptism in each one of us.

Lord, hear us.

All: Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for those who have gone before us,
especially family members of those gathered here today.

Grant them peace in your heavenly kingdom.

May God reward them for their goodness.

Lord, hear us.

All: Lord, graciously hear us.
