POEM

Written and read by Rachel Myers

My Nan

My Nan was cake and custard, Coke floats and tea.
My Nan wore Elizabeth Arden, but that wasn't for me.

My Nan loved Mr Presley and Sinatra too.

She would be singing whilst mending my shoe.

My Nan loved her family, though we drove her mad.

She would sit for hours and play with us like mad.

Our walks down Hoxton were great and a treat,
We would always end up in Percy's for something to eat.

Evenings we'd spend together just us two,
Laughing at the fact of what we were going to do.

We would make cakes 'til late at night.

By morning, it was Angel Delight.

Our days together was as priceless as could be.

There will be no other duo like my Nan and me.

This is 'cheerio' and not 'goodbye', and whilst you're in the distance,
I will remember our old tune.

Love you millions Nan.
God Bless You x

THE LORDS PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come.
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
