

A celebration of the life of

Ram Kumari Rawal

1st December 1930 - 9th March 2023

The Manchester Crematorium

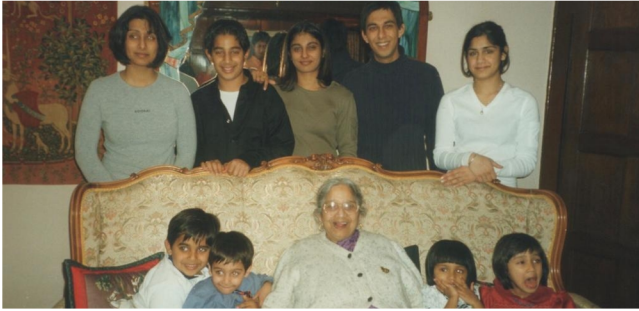

Wednesday 15th of March at 3pm

Ram Kumari was born in Mombasa on the 1st December 1930, the eldest of five children. She married at the age of eighteen to Ram Parkash Rawal. They moved from Mombasa to India when Kenya gained independence. After a short time in Ludhiana they moved to England, living in Birmingham and then later in Manchester. After Ram Parkash passed away, Ram Kumari settled in Cheadle Hulme close to family.

Ram Kumari had seven children, nine grandchildren and six great grandchildren. She was kind and loving and always stressed the importance of education. She was known as "knitting grandma" and loved gardening, food, tea, watching Wimbledon and the news.

She lived a remarkable life and her legacy lives on through her family.

na jaayate' mriyate' vaa kadaachin naayam bhuthva bhavithaa na bhooyah: / ajo nithyah saasvato'yam puraano na hanyate' hanyamaane' sareere'

The Spirit is neither born nor does it die at any time. It does not come into being or cease to exist.
It is unborn, eternal, permanent, and primeval. The Spirit is not destroyed when the body is destroyed.

Bhagvad Gita (2.20)

A collection box will be available for donations to the Indian Senior Citizens Centre

Our Sincere Gratitude

FOR YOUR
CONDOLENCES

