POEM

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep - Mary Elizabeth Frye

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you wake in the morning hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there; I did not die!*

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.*

BLESSING & DISMISSAL

*Pauline, your life we honour,
Your departure we have to accept.
Your memory we cherish
In all its many colours and patterns.
From your indifference to housework,
To your love of all creatures
And the open and honest way you spoke about your life.
You will always be our own unique Pauline
And we will miss you more than words can say.
In grief at your death
But in gratitude for your life
and for the privilege of sharing it with you
We thank you.*
