Immortality

by Clare Harner

Do not stand
By my grave, and weep,
I am not there,
I do not sleep--

I am the thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints in snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle, autumn rain.
As you awake with morning's hush,
I am the swift, up-flinging rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the day transcending night.

Do not stand
By my grave, and cry--
I am not there,
I did not die.

Appreciation

Her husband Neil and their two daughters, Jessica and Sophie, would like to thank you all for your love and support during this time of sadness.

Please join us in raising a glass to celebrate Kaz's life:

If there ever comes a day when we can't be together, keep me in your heart. I'll stay there forever.
