Seconed Hymn

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there is hatred let me bring your love
Where there is injury, your pardon Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness ever joy

Oh, master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul

Make me a channel of your peace
It isn't pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving to all men let we receive
And in dying that we're born to turn around

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness ever joy

Individually and together holding hands

Though not in body, in spirit we now connect that which cannot be broken.

Final words

Given by Rev Michael Walker

Let us close this service with a message for us all.

May we all, like Gary, remember to keep our spirits up?

To maintain a sense of humour even through the darkest of times

To celebrate life everywhere and to live every moment to the fullest.

May we live our lives with dignity and courage—regardless of the challenges in life?

And may we always make the most of what we've got, here and now?

Thank you.
