Welcome and Opening Prayer

Hymn - Lord of the Dance

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth:
At Bethlehem I had my birth.

CHORUS: Dance, then, wherever you may be,
I am the Lord of the dance, said he,
And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be,
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee,
But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me;
I danced for the fishermen, for James and John;
They came with me and the dance went on:

CHORUS

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame:
The holy people said it was a shame.
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high,
And they left me there on a cross to die:

CHORUS

I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black;
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back.
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone;
But I am the dance, and I still go on:

CHORUS

They cut me down and I leapt up high;
I am the life that'll never, never die.
I'll live in you if you'll live in me:
I am the Lord of the dance, said he.

CHORUS

Quote – By Anne Lamott and read by Ryan Kelly

“You will lose someone you can’t live without and your heart will be badly broken and the bad news is that you never completely get over the loss of your beloved.

But this is also the good news.
They live forever in your broken heart that doesn’t seal back up.
And you come through.

It’s like having a broken leg that never heals perfectly,
that still hurts when the weather gets cold
but you learn to dance with the limp.”

Committal

Prayer and blessing

Exit music – Riverdance music by Bill Whelan
(A favourite of Pat’s which she would quite often attempt to Irish dance around the room, full of fun and laughter).
