Tribute from Lillie-Mae

In loving memory of my Nanny, my Rose,
When I found out the sad news about you,
my heart shattered at the thought of losing the best nanny ever.

I will never forget all of our lovely memories together, and how big our connection was between us.

I also hope you will always look down on me as I get older.

Love you for infinity.

From your only granddaughter
Lillie-Mae xxx

Tribute from Jackie

I missed you today but that's nothing new I missed you a million times yesterday too I picked up my phone to tell you the news then realised again I can't text it to you.

I saw your bright smile at least twenty times and then I remember it's all in my mind.

I drive without presence, the world feels surreal and on comes your song and this doesn't seem real.

I missed you today but I miss you a lot.

It's helpful to miss you, it's all that I've got.

I wish I could pull you down here for a while

I fear I'll forget the shape of your smile.

I miss you today and I'll miss you tomorrow.

There seems to be no coming end to this sorrow.

I try to go on as I know that you care;

I know that you're willing me on from up there.

I miss you today but I'm trying to find a way to move on but not leave you behind; a way to forge on with the love that we had; a way to recall you and simply feel glad.

A POEM BY DONNA ASHWORTH

Tribute from Colin

It's so hard standing here reading this about you, but no one could have loved each other more than me and you.

We never had a cross word like some couples do, we just got on with it, just me and you.

Our lives were full of adventure together, that was so true, we had some fantastic times I remember, just me and you.

Our two girls were a blessing and made our dreams come true, I'm glad you're at peace now, but it will always be me and you.

I find comfort that you're at rest now, suffering no more, and we'll be together again, that I am sure.

I met you when we were young and we had a fantastic life, Until we meet again my love, my soulmate, my wife.
