POEM - When I am Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can that I ever frowned
And remember only my smile

Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever caused headache
And remember I've had loads of fun

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere close of the day

*POEM -When I am Gone
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay*

*And come in the shade of the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.*

Amazing Grace will now be played

Closing Words

*as our service of remembrance for Peter draws to a close.
I would like to leave you with these few but meaningful words that may give you some comfort or closure.*

*We cannot change the past, but we can change how we view it.
And that is what enables us to move forward with our own lives.
Lives are like rivers, eventually they go where they must. Not where we want them to.*

*We will now listen to our final piece of music.
A happier note to leave you all with.*
