FINAL BLESSING

RECESSIONAL HYMN

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?

And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among these dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold:
Bring me my arrows of desire:
Bring me my spear: O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire.

I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

Mark's family would love to see you at
The Travellers Club, 106 Pall Mall, after the Requiem Mass.

"When I was twenty-four" has more of a ring,
A lively step, full of expectation,
Compared with the reassuring song of the Beatles,
"When I am sixty-four".

What will you do when you are twenty-four?
The world lies at your feet full of challenges,
You are your own master and mistress now,
Let no-one tell you which trees to climb.

If you do not forget the golden rule,
To treat others on the road as yourself,
You will never worry about your future,
You will always reach your end happiness.

Written by Mark for Harry's 24th birthday (7 July 2022)

There will be no collection during the Mass.
If you would like to make a donation in memory of Mark, we think he would appreciate a contribution to St Patrick's Homeless Service, which provides meals and other support to those sleeping on the streets.
You can donate online at www.stpatricksoho.org/donate2#donate or via the contactless machines in the church.
