Danny Boy

Oh, Danny boy, the pipes, the pipes are calling
From glen to glen, and down the mountain side.
The summer's gone, and all the roses falling,
It's you, it's you must go and I must bide.

But come ye back when summer's in the meadow,
Or when the valley's hushed and white with snow,
It's I'll be here in sunshine or in shadow,
Oh, Danny boy, oh Danny boy, I love you so.

But when ye come, and all the flowers are dying,
If I am dead, as dead I well may be,
You'll come and find the place where I am lying,
And kneel and say an Ave there for me.
And I shall hear, though soft you tread above me,
And all my grave will warmer, sweeter be,
For you will bend and tell me that you love me,
And I shall sleep in peace until you come to me.

APPRECIATION

Danny meant so much to so many people; his generosity of spirit and sense of fun will be sorely missed by us all. The family are very grateful for all the kind messages and support from you all at this difficult time.

Following the service, we will be holding a gathering at Oxhey Jets Football Club - Altham Way, South Oxhey, Watford, Hertfordshire, WD19 6FW - to celebrate Danny's life and raise a glass (or as he would have done, many glasses) in his honour. You are warmly invited.

This is the first service to remember the life of Danny Connors. We intend to have a second service to reunite Danny with Ann, his beloved wife. We also know that Danny would want half his ashes to return to Ireland, which was always so dear to his heart, to rest in peace with treasured loved ones. This special man deserves many goodbyes.
