Silent Reflection

Song

'Place No Wreath' by Balsam Range

*Place no wreath upon my door
We don't want this earth no more
Don't be sad
Be not afraid
I'll be on my way, I'll be on my way
Dig no grave, for these bones
Carve no words upon a stone
The earth can't hold this soul of mine
I'll be going home. I'll be going home
Don't stand beneath that willow tree
Saying prayers that I no longer need
But like a bird, upon the wing
I will have flown, I will have flown
Place no wreath upon my door
We don't want this earth no more
Don't be sad
Be not afraid
I'll be on my way, I'll be on my way
The earth can't hold this soul of mine
I'll be going home. I'll be going home*
