

Earl Emanuel Carr

25th May 1951 - 10th April 2023

Service held at West Norwood Crematorium, SE27 9JU

Tuesday 23rd May at 3:30pm

Entrance music

Redemption Song sung by Bob Marley

Welcome and introduction

Eulogy

Poem from Baz

Hardly EVER saw eye to eye! We were ALWAYS butting heads but it's strange how ya feel that feeling ya feel when someone says "he's dead!"

Things like 'I'll never taste your food again', that's one thing that keeps sticking!....there's not a soul, well as far as I know that don't know SNOWYS CHICKEN.

Anyhoo POPS I'm glad you met your GREAT grandson before you died and OBVIOUSLY we'll have a beer in a bar on the OTHER SIDE.

Visual memory of Earl

APPRECIATION

We would like to thank you all for all of the messages and expressions of kindness from friends and family during this time. We truly appreciate your ongoing support.

We welcome guests to join us at The Hope after the service to celebrate Earl's life. Food and drinks will be available.

The Hope
49 Norwood High Street,
West Norwood, SE27 9JS

Take a trip down memory lane and visit @earlslife1951 on Instagram.