REFLECTION
(TWO FRIENDS)

Today's your special day- the start of both your lives together. May it be special in every way sparked by the love you treasure. May all the love your feeling still find a way to grow, sharing joys, which have a meaning that only both of you could know. May God bless your health as you care for each other's needs, may you both share in the wealth of raising a family, may your new dreams never end. We hope they all come true, and may you always be two friends whose love each day is new. Today is your day, with the bond between you strong. God has shown both of you the way and placed his love where it belongs. As you hold on to each other, always keeping your love dear, know you are blessed both by the Father and each one of us here.

Thank you for all for sharing our special day.
