

Remembering the life of

Robert George Henry
Kemp

6th October 1943 - 1st May 2023

Robert Kemp, known to most as Bob, was a fantastic man.

So here we are today, not to mourn, but to celebrate the life he lived, loved and filled with laughter.

No man could compare as a father, a grandad, a great grandad, a colleague and most importantly, a friend. Let today be about sharing and enjoying every precious memory we have, whether it be sad, happy, lovely, or as we all knew him, completely funny.
So just as he wished, we shall raise a toast in honour of his many achievements and most extraordinary long life.

*Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.*

*Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.*

*The Lord has promised good to me,
His Word my hope secures;
He will my Shield and Portion be,
As long as life endures.*

*Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess, within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.*

*The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
The sun forbear to shine;
But God, who called me here below,
Will be forever mine.*

*When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun.*
