THE ONLY POEM TRISH LIKED

*If you work and do your best you'll get the sack like all the rest, but if you laze and bugger about you'll live to see the job right out.
The work is hard, the pay is small,
so take your time and sod'em all.
Cause when you're dead you'll be forgot - so don't try and do the bloody lot,
or on your tombstone neatly lacquered,
these three words
"Just bleeding knackered"*

FINAL WORDS

A SONG TO REFLECT ON MANY HAPPY YEARS

Sung by The Kinks

APPRECIATION

As a family we thank you all for your love and support, especially during this time of sadness. We are focussed on the happiness we were lucky to have experienced by sharing our lives with a truly exceptional lady.

Thank you to the district nurses and the lovely team at Stallingborough Lodge for the gentle care they gave Trish and for supporting us in those last hours.
