

A Service to Celebrate the Life of

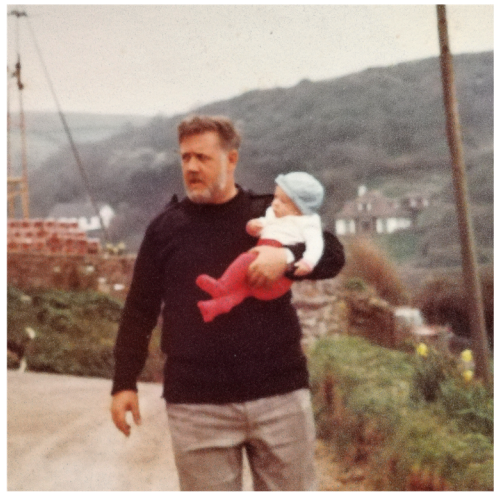

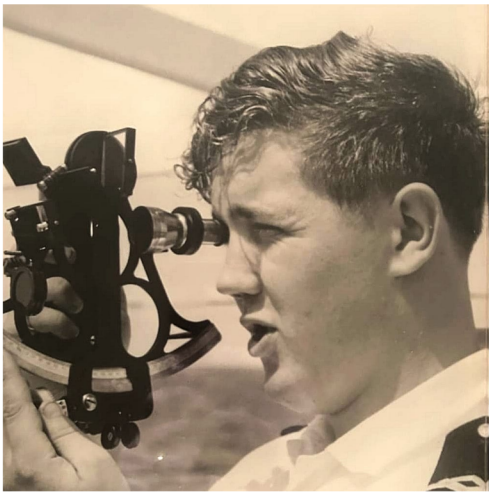

Captain Peter Henry Patrick Maw

15th October, 1934 - 7th January, 2023

We are grateful to everyone for joining us today. A visitor book is here in the Community Centre and we will take it to the wake after. We encourage you all to sign it, leave us your contact information, and most importantly, please share a memory of Peter for his grandchildren to keep in years to come.

We have tried to compile this memorial to acknowledge many of the things Peter loved: the sea, Devon, cricket, the sea, Formula One racing, the sea, pasties, clotted cream, the sea, and a drink at the pub. And also his family....

APPRECIATION

Peter's family is especially grateful for all the people who have shared with us funny or incredible memories of Peter since he died. It has meant a good deal to us to learn new things about him. We are additionally grateful to the Old Gaffers, who drove all the way from Kingsbridge, Devon (where Peter grew up) with their wonderful voices and a car full of Devonshire pasties.

DONATIONS

If you wish to make a donation, we think Peter would have suggested the Hope Cove Lifeboat, a 150-year-old independent lifeboat operation in the beloved village of his childhood, where he first fell in love with boats and the sea.

We very much hope you will join us after at:
The King's Arms, St. George's Hill, Easton-in-Gordano.
There will be Devonshire pasties, scones with clotted cream,
and more sea shanties.
