

In Loving Memory of

Lisa Chalkley

26th February 1971 - 25th May 2023

Service held at West Herts Crematorium, Garston

Monday 3rd of July at 2:40pm

Officiated by Charlotte Roscow

A daughter, a sister, a mum, a friend, a partner.
A bundle of energy, a ray of light.
A writer, an artist, an actor, a listener.
A dancer, a singer, a poet, a fighter.
A lover of tea,
“Mostly found in piles of cats, books or knitting”.

Interbeing

The sun has entered me.

The sun has entered me together with the cloud and the river.

I myself have entered the river,

and I have entered the sun

with the cloud and the river.

There has not been a moment
when we do not interpenetrate.

But before the sun entered me,

the sun was in me—

also the cloud and the river.

Before I entered the river,

I was already in it.

There has not been a moment
when we have not inter-been.

Therefore you know
that as long as you continue to breathe,
I continue to be in you.

The Window
Rumi

Your body is away from me
but there is a window open from my heart to yours.
From this window, like the moon
I keep sending news secretly.
