

A celebration of the life of

Barbara Jones

19th February 1928 - 27th May 2023

Llwydcoed Crematorium

Monday, 17th July 2023

ARRIVAL

Myfanwy
Joseph Parry

WELCOME

Memories of Barbara Jones
By Phil Jones

'Sleeping in the Forest'
By Mary Oliver
Read by Joe Jones

Reading from 'My Name is Why'
By Lemn Sissay
Read by Wendy Jones

FAREWELL

Where Do You Go To My Lovely
Peter Sarstedt

It's a Different World Altogether

I don't know anymore, I really don't know
It's a different world altogether
I'm not sure I approve, don't like it at all
But that's how it goes, it goes, it goes
That's how it goes, it goes.

It's a dark old day and no mistake
I had the house lights on at three.
The trucks roll up from the valley floor,
Their headlights blazing at me.
Who knows how they get round the tightest of bends,
They're risking their lives for sure.
Who builds these roads? Who needs these trucks?
I really don't know anymore.

All the old people they say the same
They're letting us live too long
All we can do is to enjoy ourselves
And do our best somehow
As soon as we're born, we're out at work
The years they go by so fast
There are so many ways to live your life
Everyone's different at last.

I don't know anymore, I really don't know
It's a different world altogether
I'm not sure I approve, don't like it at all
But that's how it goes, it goes, it goes
That's how it goes, it goes.

By Barbara Jones

APPRECIATION

The family would like to thank you all for your kind support during this time

Refreshments will be served after the service at:

St Elvan's Church Coffee Shop

Aberdare

CF44 7AB

DONATIONS

If you wish to make a donation, we are supporting the Macular Society
<https://www.macularsociety.org/get-involved/donate/donate>