Words of Remembrance - Read by Joanne

Hymn

Lord Of All Hopefulness

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy,
Whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy,
Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
Your bliss in our hearts, Lord,
At the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
Whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe,
Be there at our labours and give us, we pray,
Your strength in our hearts, Lord,
At the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
Your hands swift to welcome, Your arms to embrace.
Be there at our homing, and give us, we pray,
Your love in our hearts, Lord,
At the eve of the day.

Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm,
Whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm,
Be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray,
Your peace in our hearts, Lord,
At the end of the day.

Opening Prayer

First Reading - Read by Denise

A reading from the first letter of St John (3:1-2)

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.

The word of the Lord. All: \ Thanks be to God.

Reading by Denise - Psalm 129-130

The response is: Out of the depths, I cry to you O Lord

Out of the depths, I cry to you, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!
O Let your ears be attentive. To the voice of my pleading.

Out of the depths, I cry to you, O Lord

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who should survive?
But with you if found forgiveness: For this we revere you.

Out of the depths, I cry to you, O Lord

My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word
My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak

Out of the depths, I cry to you, O Lord

Because with the Lord there is mercy. And fullness of redemption
Israel indeed he will redeem. From all his iniquity.

Out of the depths, I cry to you, O Lord

Thank you
