Introduction and Welcome by Andy Climie

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun; Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*

The Serenity Prayer

*God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference.*

*Living one day at a time; enjoying one moment at a time;
accepting hardships as the pathway to peace;*

*taking, as you did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it;
trusting that you will make all things right if I surrender to your will;
that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy* with you forever in the next.

Amen.

We are so small between the stars, so large against the sky.

I've often said if I knew where the good songs came from, I'd go there more often. I greet you from the other side of sorrow and despair, with a love so vast and shattered it will reach you everywhere.

So come, my friends, be not afraid.

We are so lightly here.

*It is in love that we are made
In love we disappear*
