~ FIRST READING ~

When you are old by W.B. Yeats - Read by Anna Campbell

*When you are old and grey and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep;*

*How many loved your moments of glad grace,
And loved your beauty with love false or true,
But one man loved the pilgrim soul in you,
And loved the sorrows of your changing face;*

*And bending down beside the glowing bars,
Murmur, a little sadly, how Love fled
And paced upon the mountains overhead
And hid his face amid a crowd of stars.*

~SECOND READING ~

A traditional Celtic reading - Read by Danielle Thomas

*May the raindrops fall lightly on your brow
May the soft winds freshen your spirit
May the sunshine brighten your heart
May the burdens of the day rest lightly upon you
And may God enfold you in the mantle of His love.*

*May the road rise to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face and the rain fall soft upon your fields
And until we meet again my friend(s)
May God hold you in the hollow (palm) of his hand.*

Love is Deep by Dr. Mercy Akrofi Ansah - Read by Michael Mbeledogu

Love is deep. Hmmm. Love is deep.
That is why you come from far away and I come from far away, yet today we have met to tie our cloth together. Love is deep.

Love is powerful,
Love is like a spider's web,
When we get entangled in it
We cannot get ourselves out of it!
Truthfully, love is powerful
