THE WELCOME

FIRST READING

Eden Pau

We're not saying you can change them,
cause people don't really change
We're only saying that love's a force that's powerful and strange

People make bad choices if they're mad, or scared, or stressed Throw a little love their way, throw a little love their way and you'll bring out their best

True love brings out their best!

THE PREFACE

THE LEGAL DECLARATIONS

SECOND READING

Daniel Barker

Love is a temporary madness,
it erupts like volcanoes and then subsides.
And when it subsides you have to make a decision.
You have to work out whether your root was so entwined together that it is inconceivable that you should ever part.
Because this is what love is.

Love is not breathlessness, it is not excitement, it is not the promulgation of promises of eternal passion.
That is just being in love, which any fool can do.
Love itself is what is left over when being in love has burned away,
and this is both an art and a fortunate accident.
Those that truly love have roots that grow towards each other underground, and when all the pretty blossoms have fallen from their branches, they find that they are one tree and not two.
