Thank you for coming and sharing
Alex's Memorial day with us.

Alex was a strong, independent, funny (the haha kind) of person.
He worked hard and for those that knew him knew he played hard too. He was loved by many. Thank you to everyone here today sharing stories, memories and bringing light to Alex's life.

Special thanks to family and close friends.

Thank you to Dan for sharing his most precious times with Alex. Thank you to all the people who have known, treasured, guided and supported Alex over the years; we are truly grateful.

Alex loved music and films. He particularly loved dance, electro and trance music. We feel this would be a great way to share some of Alex's favourite artists and songs with everyone. There are too many to fit within this booklet so please see attached sheet.

Listen at your leisure and enjoy!

Don't mourn for me now, don't mourn for me never,
I am going to do nothing forever and ever.

Do not feel guilty for living now I have passed away. Keep smiling, laughing, playing and do this everyday.
For those of you who liked me, for those of you who didn't (well who cares about those that didn't) I sincerely thank you all. In my fleeting lifespan as time went rushing by, I found some time to hesitate to laugh, to love, to cry.
Matters it now if time began. If time will ever cease? I was here, I used it all and now I am at peace.
"Its all funny really lol".

In memory of a very loved son, brother, grandson, partner and friend our Greatest Showman Alex!
