

Poem- AfterGlow-

Helen Lowrie Marshall

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Poem - My eternal love -

Lauren Price

Embracing the essence of eternity, our love shines brightly through the tapestry of time, a testament to our boundless connection that knows no end.

Though you may be physically distant, the love we shared continues to light up my heart, reminding me that even in loss, love's warmth remains an eternal presence.

In the garden of our memories, your presence blooms forever. Though you're no longer with us, your love and laughter continue to fill our hearts, creating a bond that time can not break.

While my heart bears a weight of sorrow, grieving the absence of your earthly presence, my heart acknowledges you've crossed to the other side and I find comfort in the belief that one day, we'll reunite and continue our journey together.

Deep and enduring, transcending time, boundless both within and beyond...

My Eternal Love.

Gentle Jesus Prayer

Gentle Jesus meek and mild look upon a little child

Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep;
Angels watch me through the night,
And wake me with the morning light.
