RECEPTION OF COFFIN

WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Death is nothing at all I have only slipped away into the next room
I am I and you are you Whatever we were to each other
That we are still Call me by my old familiar name
Speak to me in the easy way you always used Put no difference into your tone Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow Laugh as we always laughed
At the little jokes we always enjoyed together
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me Let my name be ever the household word that it always was Let it be spoken without effort
Without the ghost of a shadow in it Life means all that it ever meant It is the same as it ever was There is absolute unbroken continuity
What is death but a negligible accident?
Why should I be out of mind
Because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you for an interval Somewhere very near Just around the corner
All is well.
Nothing is past; nothing is lost
One brief moment and all will be as it was before How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!

Eulogy by Neil Atkinson

POPS

By Callum James Thomas Gallon

Although we walk in night now we shared in your last days, we greive because you've left us but this is the natural way.

*Our love for you lives forever always in our hearts, we know that you are with us even though we are apart.
We will think of you and smile this is all that we can do, your smile was the sunshine that always saw us through.*

And if we feel tears for you coming to our eyes please know that they're because you lived and not because you died.

We cry not in sadness now you're no longer there, we keep our treasured memories of the times we got to share.

We know that you were proud of us we saw that every day, be at peace and rest
