RECEPTION OF CREMATION

WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Funeral Blues

Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone,
Prevent the dog from barking with a juicy bone,
Silence the pianos and with muffled drum
Bring out the coffin, let the mourners come.
Let aeroplanes circle moaning overhead
Scribbling on the sky the message 'She is Dead'.
Put crepe bows round the white necks of the public doves,
Let the traffic policemen wear black cotton gloves.
He was my North, my South, my East and West,
My working week and my Sunday rest,
My noon, my midnight, my talk, my song;
I thought that love would last forever: I was wrong.

The stars are not wanted now; put out every one,
Pack up the moon and dismantle the sun,
Pour away the ocean and sweep up the wood;
For nothing now can ever come to any good.

Untill we meet again - Rachel

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile
if only i could have you back just for a while
Then we could sit and talk again
just like we used to do You always meant so very much and always will do too
The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain but you're forever in my heart
until we meet again

Missing You Nan poem By Emma

“The years will always roll on by and time will always pass, but every memory I have of you will definitely always last. I like to smile when I think of you. I try not to be sad. It's pretty easy to do with all the good times that we've had. But sometimes I can't help it, and memories leak out of my eyes, and I quickly try to brush them away. I know you wouldn't want me to cry. I don't know how it's possible, but I love you more now than I did then, and I really cannot wait until the day that I see you again. Because, Nan, I know I would take hold of you and never ever let you go. Every day that passes by I miss you more and more”.

A Few Words By Michael : Nan Was More Than Just A Nan, She Was Special To Every Member Of The Family In Her Own Way, She Was Slim But To Me Stronger Than Any Other Person. She Was Short, But To Me Stood Taller Than Any Mountain. She Taught Me Humour, Respect, Strength, Currage & How To Truley Love. From Strawberry Jam On My Dummies As A Baby To Now Always Being There When I Felt Most Alone, Good Or Bad She Supported Me And Was There Through All My Highs And Lows, She Was My First Sole Mate, My First Love My Forever Home. You May Not Be Here In Person But Will Forever Be In My Heart, Alot Of My Actions Remind Me Of You Because For Me Your The Little Light Burning In My Heart.
