

A celebration of the life of George Fenton

23rd March 1943-15th August 2023

Service held at Honor Oak Crematorium

Friday 15th September 2023 at 3.15pm

Ceremony delivered by David Matthews Independent Celebrant

Entry Music

Flower of Scotland

A Welcome and introduction by David Matthews

The Eulogy

A Tribute to George By Chris Gwinnell

Years ago, in the Navy, he started as a chef, he discovered a passion for cooking, that never ever left.
But the hours were too long for him, forgoing a social life, no time to chat up all the birds or find himself a wife. (not that he ever wanted one!) so, he turned his hand to painting, wallpapering as well, he discovered he was good at it and things went very well.
you could tell that he'd been busy from the colours on his clothes,
and on his arms & face & glasses & especially his nose!
in fact, everything had paint on, whatever he would wear, if he'd worn Versace it would have been on there.
you could fault the way he dressed and how he didn't really care, but you could not fault his friendship & his loyalty was there.
if you needed any help at all, he would always be around, and if you needed money, he'd make sure it was found.
(to the detriment of himself!) with friends from The Swan, The Greyhound, Neptune and 241 for years, there have been lots of happy memories & of course a lot of tears.
He idolised his God children, of them he was so proud, now we'll never again his booming voice or laugh that was so loud.
we all would like to thank you George for all those years we had, you'd have made an awful husband, but a most amazing Dad.

A Tribute from Roy read by his sister Thora

The Lord's prayer

Our father who art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name Thy kingdom come Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom
The power and the glory
For ever and ever
Amen

The Committal

Final Words of Comfort

exit music

Don't Cry for Me Argentina

Thank you all for being here as part of the celebration of George's life.

After the conclusion of the service, Family & friends will gather at The General Napier Public House 73 Bovill Road, London, SE23 1 EX

Donations

Will be welcome in memory of George to Live Well with C.O.P.D.

1175611 Register of Charities