The Penitential Rite

The Gloria

All: Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: A reading from the First letter of St John (4:7FF)

Read by Carmen, Aobhin's Godmother

My dear people,
Let us love one another,
Because love is of God
And whoever loves
Is begotten by God
And knows God.
No one has ever seen God.
Yet, if we love one another,
God abides in us
And his love comes to perfection in us.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Second Reading: A Reading from the Prophet Micah
Read by John, Chris' groomsman

With what shall I come before the Lord
And bow down before him?
Shall I come with burnt offerings,
With calves one year old?
The Lord has told you what is good, O mortal one. This is what pleases the
Lord, only this:
That you Act justly
Love tenderly
And Walk humbly with your God.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

After the second reading, the readers return to their places and the congregation stands to greet the Gospel.

Gospel acclamation

Alleluia - Sung

The Gospel

P. The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

All: Glory to you O Lord.

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited. When they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for the wedding was all finished, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." Jesus said, "Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." There were six stone jars standing there, meant for the ablutions that are customary among the Jews: each could hold twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water", and they filled them to the brim. "Draw some out now," he told them, "and take it to the steward." They did this; the steward tasted the water, and it turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from – only the stewards who had drawn the water knew – the steward called the bridegroom and said: "People generally serve the best wine first, and keep the cheaper sort till the guests have had plenty to drink; but you have kept the best wine till now." This was the first of the signs given by Jesus: it was given at Cana in Galilee. He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

The Prayers of the Faithful

P. Inviting people to pray

Ailbhe: Let us pray for Aobhín and Christopher who are now united in marriage. May God keep them in his care and may He bless their world with health and happiness. Let us pray to the Lord

All: Lord hear our prayer.

Adam: Let us pray for the parents of Aobhín and Christopher and for all their family and friends who have helped them to become husband and wife. Let us pray to the Lord.

All: Lord hear our prayer.

Aoife: Let us pray for all who could not be with us today, especially Christopher's mother Jill who passed away this July. Through your grace grant that they share in the joy of the day. Let us pray to the Lord.

All: Lord hear our prayer.

Mark: Let us pray for the sick and those who are bereaved, while we are celebrating, that in their suffering and loneliness they may experience the strength of God's support. Let us pray to the Lord

All: Lord hear our prayer

Reflection

Read by Robyn, Chris' sister

Now you will feel no rain,
for each of you will be shelter for the other.

Now you will feel no cold,
for each of you will be warmth to the other.

Now there will be no loneliness,
for each of you will be companion to the other.

Now you are two persons,
but there is only one life before you.

May beauty surround you both in the journey ahead and through all the years,
May happiness be your companion and your days together be good and long upon the earth.
