

A romantic wedding photograph of a couple kissing at sunset. The groom, on the left, has a beard and is wearing a white shirt, a patterned tie, and a brown tweed vest. The bride, on the right, is wearing a white lace wedding dress and glasses. They are holding hands and kissing. The background is a soft, golden sunset over a landscape. Numerous red and orange petals are falling around them, creating a dreamy atmosphere. The text 'Thank you' is overlaid in a large, white, cursive font in the lower center of the image.

Thank you
