

THE FIRST READING

They are Gone
written by David Harkins
Read by James Chiverton

You can shed tears that they are gone
Or you can smile that they have lived

You can close your eyes and pray that they will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that they have left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see them
Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember them and only that they are gone
Or you can cherish their memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what they would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

A FEW WORDS

Claire Caesar

HYMN

*Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy,
Whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy.
Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
Your bliss in our hearts, Lord,
At the break of the day.*

*Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, Whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the
lathe,
Be there at our labours, and give us, we pray,
Your strength in our hearts, Lord,
At the noon of the day.*

*Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
Your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace.
Be there at our homing, and give us we pray,
Your love in our hearts, Lord,
At the eve of the day.*

*Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm,
Whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm,
Be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray,
Your peace in our hearts, Lord,
At the end of the day.*

TALK

THE SECOND READING

Sing a song of Yorkshire
written by Doreen Brigham
Read by James Hilder

Sing a song of Yorkshire, from the Humber to the Tees.

*Of horses, wool and terriers, of pudding
and of cheese.*

*I know no other county where the land is quite so fine.
England's lovely county. And I'm proud to call it mine.*

Where shining purple heather stretches far across the Moor,

and the Lapwing's cry above me takes the place of traffic roar.

*And peace comes drifting gently, there's no place
I'd rather be*

than this land of hills and valleys, from the Pennines to the sea.

*So when I've done my roaming, and when my steps
grow slow;*

when heart and mind assure me that the time has come to go,

*then let me rest in Yorkshire, for it's there I want to lie
'neath sun and wind and heather... and a gleaming
Yorkshire sky.*

PRAYERS

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.*

HYMN

*Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven;
To His feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like me His praise should sing?
Praise Him, Praise Him,
Praise Him, Praise Him,
Praise the everlasting King.*
