THE WELCOME & INTRODUCTION
The Ceremony Officer

FIRST READING

Extract from Captain Corelli's Mandolin Louis de Bernieres read by Beth

Love is a temporary madness; it erupts like a volcano and then subsides.

And when it subsides you have to make a decision.

You have to work out whether your roots have so intertwined together that it is inconceivable that you should ever part.

Because this is what love is.

Love is not breathlessness, it is not excitement, it is not the promulgation of eternal passion.

That is just being in love, which any fool can do.

Love is what is left over when being in love has burned away,
and this is both an art and a fortunate accident.

Those that truly love have roots that grow towards each other underground, and when all the pretty blossoms have fallen from the branches, they find they are one tree not two.

VOWS

I do solemnly declare i know not of any lawful impediment why I,
..... may not be joined in matrimony to

I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, do take thee, to be my lawful wedded wife/husband

EXCHANGE OF RINGS

Ring bearers: Seren & Lowri, Jennifer & Rebecca

I give you this ring as a token of our marriage

Reply - I wear this ring as a symbol of our love.

SECOND READING

EXTRACT FROM LES MISERABLES BY VICTOR HUGO

read by Liz

The future belongs to hearts even more than it does to minds.

Love, that is the only thing that can occupy and fill eternity.

in the infinite, the inexhaustible is requisite.

Love participates of the soul itself.

it is the same nature.

Like it, it is the divine spark; like it, it is incorruptible.

It is a point of fire that exists within us, which is immortal and infinite which nothing can contain and which nothing can extinguish.

We feel it burning even to the marrow of our bones and we see it beaming in the very depths of heaven.
