FIRST READING: Wisdom 3:1-6 by : (Jodie Coultas-Preece)

But the souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God, no torment shall ever touch them. In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die, their going looked like a disaster, their leaving us, like annihilation; but they are in peace. If they experienced punishment as men see it, their hope was rich with immortality; slight was their affliction, great will their blessings be. God has put them to the test and proved them worthy to be with him; he has tested them like gold in a furnace and accepted them as a holocaust.

At the end the reader says:

Reader: The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Theresa Robinson)

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want

Reader: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Fresh and green are the pastures, where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me to revive my drooping spirit.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want

Reader: He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil will I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. †

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want

Reader: You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want

Reader: Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want

All:Glory to you, Lord.

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me.

In my father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.

And you know the way to the place where I am going."

Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going.

How can we know the way?"

Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the father except through me.
