Welcome & Introduction

Poem - Remember Me' by Margaret Mead

To the living, I am gone.
To the sorrowful, I will never return.
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.

So as you stand upon a shore, gazing at a beautiful sea – remember me.

As you look in awe at a mighty forest and its grand majesty – remember me.

As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity – remember me.

Remember me in your heart, your thoughts, your memories of the times we loved,

The times we cried, the times we fought, the times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never be gone.

Time for Reflection

Poem - Last Journey
written by Timothy Cote

There is a train at the station With a seat reserved just for me
I'm excited about its destination As I've heard it sets you free
The trials and tribulations The pain and stress we breathe
Don't exist where I am going Only happiness I believe I hope that you will be there To wish me on my way
It's not a journey you can join in It's not your time today
There'll be many destinations Some are happy, some are sad
Each one a brief reminder Of the great times that we've had Many friends I know are waiting Who took an earlier train
To greet and reassure me That nothing has really changed
We'll take the time together To catch up on the past
To build a new beginning One that will always last
One day you'll take your journey On the train just like me
And I promise that I'll be there At the station and you will see That life is just a journey Enriched by those you meet
No-one can take that from you It's always yours to keep
But now as no seat is vacant You will have to muddle through Make sure you fulfil your ambitions As you know I'll be watching you
And if there's an occasion To mention who you knew Speak kindly of that person As one day it will be you
Now I can't except this ending And as it's time for me to leave Please make haste to the reception To enjoy my drinks, they're free!
