Poem

My Mother Kept A Garden

*My mother kept a garden, a garden of the heart, she planted all the good things that gave my life its start, she turned me to the sunshine and encouraged me to dream, fostering and nurturing the seeds of self-esteem, and when the winds and rain came, she protected me enough — but not too much because she knew I'd need to stand strong and tough,
her constant good example always taught me right from wrong, markers for my pathway that will last a lifetime long,
I am my mother's garden, I am her legacy, and I hope today she feels the love reflected back from me*

Prayers

The Lords Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name,
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven,
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us,
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Commendation & Committal

Poem: Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done,
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun,
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
