

A celebration of the life of

Anne Catherine Streatfield

11th April 1951 - 23rd September 2023

Much loved Mum, Nanny and friend to so many Bluebell Crematorium - 16th October 2023

Music as we enter: Ed Sheeran – Supermarket Flowers

Words of welcome: Pastor Gareth Wales

Memories of Anne: Friends and Family

Music as we remember: Hillsong – The Power of Your Love

Poems:

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

Jacqui's poem

Darling Anne, Although we hadn't known each other so very long
Our friendship and love was undeniably strong
We shared so much, you gave me strength
You cheered me up with your wit when we talked at length

I admired how you've raised your sons
How proud you were to be their mum
The stories you told me of James and his past We giggled and laughed, those three years went so fast

Your kind gentle ways and your amazing heart
I'll always remember, now we are apart
So when it came to say goodbye
I held your hand, hugged your boys and cried

I really wanted you to stay But I understood your struggles and pain; how you wanted to be free to run again

To be with your love who was taken too soon
And continue your journey together in God's private room

You send us rainbows and white feathers too
We know you are with us, and this helps us pull through Rest well Darling Anne, you've been through so much
We will always miss your tender touch.

With love and thanks, Jacqui xxx

Granddaughters' poem (with help from mummy)

Are there guardian angels?
we believe so
For God gave us a beautiful lady to help watch us grow

A lady so beautiful inside and out
She had to be an angel
God let slip out

A lady to protect us from all of our fears
And love us and hold us and wipe away our tears

She held our little fingers and kissed every toe She beamed when she saw us we wish she didn't have to go

God has taken her to rest and we know its time to part We will cherish her forever and hold her in our heart

We know we can't see her but she'll be there everyday Watching as we're reading and protecting us when we play

This lady is our Nanny to her we do owe
To live life and find joy wherever we may go

We love you Nanny xxx

Visual tribute: Faith Hill – There You'll Be

Music as we say goodbye: Israel Kamakawiwo'ole – Over the Rainbow

Music as we depart: Maroon 5 – Memories

Appreciation

The family would like to thank everyone for attending today.

Refreshments will be held at the New Life Church to which you are warmly invited.

New Life Church
Main Road
Biggin Hill
Kent
TN16 3BB

Donations

Donations in memory of Anne will be most gratefully received for either

The New Life Church, Sort Code 54-21-25 Account number 25899848

or

Battersea Dogs and Cats Home tributefund.battersea.org.uk/In-Memory/Anne-Catherine-Streatfield