Poem

'Ode to Intimations on Immortality' by William Wordsworth

*The Rainbow comes and goes,
And lovely is the Rose,
The Moon doth with delight Look round her when the heavens are bare,
Waters on a starry night
Are beautiful and fair;
The sunshine is a glorious birth
But yet I know, where'er I go,
That there hath past away a glory from the Earth.*

An Apache grief blessing

May the sun bring you energy everyday, bringing light into the darkness of your soul.

May the moon softly restore you by light bathing you in the glow of restful sleep and peaceful dreams.

May the rain wash away your worries, and cleanse the hurt that sits in your heart.

May the breeze blow new strength into your being, and may you believe in the courage of yourself.

May you walk gently through the world, keeping your loved one with you always, knowing that you are never parted in the beating of your heart

Poem

'A Thought or Two' by Jennifer Mcleod

*The gift of life is a precious thing
It can make you cry
or make you sing It's there to be used to the full, to the brim never abused, for that is a sin Don't waste your life Live it to the full Never get bored
Don't let life be dull.*
