

Poem

Remember Only My Best

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can any frowns -
And remember only my smile.*

*Forget any dark words spoken,
But remember the good I have done.
Forget that there ever was heartache,
Just remember the laughter and fun.*

*Forget that I stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way;
Remember when people are hurting,
They don't always mean what they say.*

*So do not grieve for my going,
And feel you forever must cry
But in summer just gather some flowers
And come to the place where lie.*

*And then in the shade of the evening,
When the sun paints the sky in the west;
Stand for a moment beside me -
And remember only my best.*

Poem

Miss me, but let me go

Read by Daniel

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me for a little - but not for long.
And with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we must all take,
and each must go alone.
It's all part of a master plan,
A step on the Road home.
When you are lonely
and sick at heart go to a friend's we know,
laugh at all the things we used to do,
Miss me, but let me go.

Farewell

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
for ever and ever.

Amen.
