Following this poem, and our last song, Family will move to graveside for a final farewell. Please feel free to join them or move on to the reception where there is a warm welcome waiting. All flowers wrapped naturally are welcome to adorn the final resting place.

Poem for Jean

In the embrace of memories, Jean's compassion echo's. A beloved wife, mother, sister and friend. Her low flows. Laughter woven in the tapestry of days gone by in quiet moments, her spirit, like a gentle sigh.

A good listener, she held hearts with care, in joyous echoes and the burdens we'd share. Her legacy, a garden of compassion sown, In the hearts of those who she called her own.

Farewell, dear Molly, to your eternal rest. Your warmth and love forever in our chest. As tears fall, laughters echo will remain, in the stories of a life, such a beautiful flame.

Gathering at the Graveside
& our closing farewell

Charlie and the family would like to thank you all for your kind support during this time of great sadness. We hope this service is a fitting tribute to a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend to all. Jean will be deeply missed by so many.

We invite you to join us for refreshments after the service at:

The Robert Burre
183 Burrs Road
Clacton-on-Sea
