WELCOME & WORDS OF COMFORT

A Limb Has Fallen

A limb has fallen from the family tree,
I hear a voice that whispers 'Grieve not for me'.
Remember the best times the laughter, the songs,
The good I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage I'm counting on you,
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease my soul is at rest,
Remembering all, how I was truly blessed.
Continue traditions no matter how small,
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall.
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin,
Until that fine day we're together again.

FAREWELL POEM FROM DAVE Look For Me in Rainbows by Conn Bernard

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.
Time for me to leave you, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.
It won't be forever, the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.
Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.
Every waking moment, and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.
Just wish me to be near you, and I'll be there with you.

SOME FOND MEMORIES...

As you can see I was thrilled to welcome David! He was born at home in Hurst Close, Crawley. Our garden backed on to the gardens in Wold Close and when my "Auntie" Norma shouted over was there any news, my dad proudly shouted back that he had a son
- Linda

Various times at Circus festivals where Dave insisted he couldn't sing, and then proved it, and his antics on the Hawth roof, setting off fireworks at the end of the fire show. He used a ladder to get to the highest part, and then struggled to find the ladder again to get down. Fortunately he made it in time
- Brian

David was an avid bowler, encouraging Linda, his dad and Suzanne to pick it up too. Here's a snap of when the team won the league for the second time in a row.

Not to say that he was a pyromaniac or anything but... some of our fondest memories of Uncle David involved fire - eating it and rolling it along his arm at our birthday parties, and of course setting the Christmas pud alight at Christmas - Emma & Franki

Suzanne thanks everyone for attending Dave's Celebration of Life ceremony today. She also thanks you for your kind words, thoughts, and support at this sad time. Everyone is warmly invited to join her and all the family for refreshments and to share even more memories of Dave across the road at:
Heathy Farm.

If you wish to give a donation in Dave's name, please do so to either:

St Catherine's Hospice or Cancer Research UK.
