Prayers

Read by Jill Adams, John's Friend

O comforting One, compassionate One be with us all when we suffer loss
and ache with the pain of grieving.
Give us a glimpse of the way it will be
when love will never be taken away,
when life itself will not be diminished
when all that we hold most precious will live and remain with us forever. Amen.

Those who wish to, may join in The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

A Memory with Dad

It was a very special moment for us both. Dad was leaning on the fence in the gentle, warm summer air.

He said quietly "a piece of Heaven".

"Here, with the sun hot on his face, a cuckoo calling from a thorn tree, and in the air, the honey savour of gorse, here among the little fronds of the young fern, the starry Blackthorn, while the bright clouds drifted by high above the hills and dreamy valleys here and now was such a glimpse."
