Mom

*Mom you're like a rock to me,
You're there when things go wrong,
If i told you all my worries
You would listen all night long.*

*Mom you're like a rock to me,
In everything i do,
If i lived million miles away,
In my heart you'd be there too.*

*Mom you're like a rock to me,
I've got one more thing to say,
I love you Mom and think of you
Every minute, every hour, every day.
With all our love
Michael, Emma and Anthony*

Our mother dearest

Sandra was born in Liverpool, in the early 60s, growing up she lived in Northwood, where you couldn't hang your socks on the washing line without them going missing. From around the age of 6 or 7, her grandad used to send her to the shop to buy him a lucie amd a polo (1 cigarette and 1 polo), this is where she started smoking.

She moved to Summerseat in the early 80s, working behind the bar (navvy). Where she met our dad, the charming and boisterous navy officer and they later got married.

Whilst our Dad was based in Portsmouth, they had Michael. In their early marriage they lived in both Liverpool and Birmingham, before settling in Leicetser.

They moved to Leicester in 1990s and had Emma. Shortly afterwards in 1993 came Anthony.

Both our parents worked very hard to buy their own home, non more so than our mom who worked 3 jobs, which included shoppercheck, carting all 3 kids around in the evening in the old Ford Orion. We were lucky enough to travel some of the world with her and made memories that will stay with us for a life time. Often we travelled to and from Liverpool, whilst she did her own version of carpool karaoke to an array of George Michael, Gabrielle and Whitney Houston. No wonder Emma thinks shes a hairbrush diva.

Its fair to say Sandra liked a good drink, like the best of them, she often enjoyed nights outs, especially Monday's, with her skittles ladies. She was very lucky to have a lot of friends, especially Sue and Lee. Sue god love her looked after our mom through the whole duration of her illnesses, not even letting her pay for parking on frequent trips to the hospital. Our mom loved you dearly Sue, and we all thank you for all your love and support.

She went on to have 3 grandsons, Tommy, Alfie and Stewie-Allan, who she loved and adored, just as much as she did us.

Our mom was not just a mom, she was a best friend, someone you could confide in, she was really one in a million and will be sadly missed by all of us.

The Talk: ' I love Michael cause he is my first born, i love Emma cause she is the only girl and i love Anthony cause he's the baby. (This used to frequently get extended with children she unofficially adopted). From Michael, Emma and Anthony. xxx

From her best friend Sue: ' We've seen each other at our best and at our worst. We've seen each other love and lose. We've been happy, sad, laughed and cried. We've stuck up for each other, but in amongst all of life's ups and downs we've been great friends consistently. Who can i tell all my secrets to now? My brave and beautiful kind very best friend i will miss and love you for the rest of my life, it's been an honour and a privilege to have been part of yours and your lovely families lives. Love Sue p xxx

From her niece Stacey: 'One of my best memories with my auntie San is when we had come home from a night out at 6.30am, singing down the street, waking everyone up! Another is time she was giving me driving lessons, where i would take the corners too fast and she would be hanging on to the door handle for dear life. My auntie San was like no other, she would drop anything and come to my rescue. Shes always been my inspiration and always will be'. xxx

From her sister Linda: 'My sister was my sister and my mother, who raised and cared for me'. xxx

From her Grandson Tommy: 'We used to call each other douche bags, this made gaga laugh so much'. xxx
