There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the Heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance...

Should You Go First

Should you go first and I remain to walk the road alone.
I'll live in memory's garden, dear, with happy day's we've known.
In spring I'll watch for roses red, when fades the lilac blue,
In early fall, when brown leaves call, I'll catch a glimpse of you

Should you go first and I remain, for battles to be fought,
Each thing you've touched along the way, will be a hallowed spot.
I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, though blindly I may grope,
The memory of your helping hand will buoy me on with hope

Should you go first and I remain, one thing I'd have you do;
Walk slowly down that long, lone path, for soon I'll follow you.
I'll want to know each step you take, that I may walk the same.
For someday down that lonely road, you'll hear me call your name.
