Morning has Broken Eleanor Farjeon (1931)

Morning has broken like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the world

Sweet the rains new fall, sunlit from Heaven
Like the first dewfall on the first grass
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden
Sprung in completeness where His feet pass

Mine is the sunlight, mine is the morning
Born of the one light, Eden saw play
Praise with elation, praise every morning
God's recreation of the new day

Morning has broken like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the world

Reading in times of daffodils by ee cummings Read by Ellie, Isobel and Chloe David's Granddaughters

in time of daffodils (who know the goal of living is to grow) forgetting why, remember how in time of lilacs who proclaim the aim of waking is to dream, remember so (forgetting seem)

Prayer of Commendation

*Gracious God, nothing in death or life, nothing in the world as it is,
nothing in the world as it shall be,
nothing in all creation can separate us from your love.*

*Jesus commended his spirit into your hands at his last hour.
Into those same hands we now commend your servant, David,
that dying to the world and cleansed from sin,
death may be for him the gate to life and to eternal fellowship with you;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen*

Committal in Church

Prayer for all present

A Celtic Blessing: Read by Oliver Morgan (David's son-in-law)

*Deep peace of the running wave to you;
Deep peace of the flowing air to you;
Deep peace of the quiet earth to you;
Deep peace of the shining stars to you;
Deep peace of the gentle night to you;
Moon and stars pour their healing light on you;
Deep peace of Christ, the light of the world, to you.*

*May the road rise up to meet you;
May the wind be always at your back;
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
May the rains fall softly upon your fields.
Until we meet again, May God hold you in the hollow of His hand*

Sonata in D Major for two pianos

The nunc demittis

David's grandchildren, Kaila and Luke, and daughter-in-law, Orië have chosen two jensai (Japanese poems written by poets in contemplation of death)

*Empty-handed I entered the world
Barefoot I leave it
My coming, my going -
Two simple happenings
That got entangled (Kozan Ichikyo)*

In the floating world the moon is clear without a cloud.
(Oishi Kuranosuke)*
