

RECEPTION OF COFFIN "Fade Away" by Junior Byles

WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

SERMON THEME: Is there any hope for the Dead

Conducted by Barry Brown (Brother)

TRIBUTE: Read by Tanya Brown (niece)

CONCLUDING PRAYERS

Conducted by Barry Brown (Brother)

EXIT OF FUNERAL GUESTS "One Love" by Bob Marley

TRIBUTE: LETTER TO UNCLE JUNIOR

Uncle Junior, your life's journey was never smooth, yet you always turned up for us with positive energy, as you now join your son. Know, without question, that you have a special place in the hearts of your 38 nieces and nephews and nuff cousins; those of us blessed you know your story are missing your energy, voice, and laugh.

Especially later today, we will share stories of you, your nicknames for us, your hourly visits and calls, jokes, football chat, how you could always make us laugh with your antics, tease mostly when our football team lost, singing songs you'd made and then tell us " don't come it" when we give back.

Now, Uncle J, you've passed on; we cry for our unc's who always listened, gave his time and love, and we never spent a dull moment with you. Thank you for being our uncle and friend, giving us laughter, love, jokes, mischief and lovingly annoying.

Thinking about you more now, of all the personalities and smiles we hold as special, Uncle J, you were the most serene; you were the uncle who allowed us to tease him; we valued, loved and respected.

Uncle Junior, you were our uncs, and on that, you can bet.

We know you will forever be looking out for us & hoping... I said, hoping Westham will one day win the premiership.

It gives us comfort that you are with your son, sister, brother and parents. You will forever be our fun uncle & we will always share stories of you.

Rest in peace, Uncle J, watching Westham games from up there.

We love you dearly

YOUR 38 NIECES AND NEPHEWS

