RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Reader:
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

All:
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reader:
The Lord is my shepherd; There is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.

All:
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reader:
He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort.

All:
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reader:
You have prepared a banquet for me in the site of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.

All:
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reader:
Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

All:
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

All:

Glory to you, O Lord.

Priest:

On arriving at Bethany, Jesus found that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days already. Bethany is only about two miles from Jerusalem, and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to sympathise with them over their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus had come she went to meet him. Mary remained sitting in the house. Martha said to Jesus, 'If you had been here my brother would not have died, but I know that even now, whatever you ask of God he will grant you'. 'Your brother,' said Jesus to her, 'Will rise again'. Martha said, 'I know that he will rise again at the resurrection on the last day'. Jesus said, 'I am the resurrection and the life. If anyone believes in me, even though he dies he will live, and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?' 'Yes, Lord', she said, 'I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into this world.'

All:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

THE PROCESSION FROM THE CHURCH

(All sing)

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
Where there is injury your pardon, Lord;
And where there's doubt true faith in you.

Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
Where there is darkness, only light;
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
In giving to all men that we receive;
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.
