THE DECLARATIONS

READING - 1 CORINTHIANS 13

(READ BY SHARON EDWARDS)

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. There is nothing Love cannot face. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Love never comes to an end. But where there are prophecies, they will end; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. For our knowledge and our prophecy are partial, and the partial vanishes when wholeness comes. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I grew up, I put childish ways behind me. Now we see only a puzzling reflection as in a cloudy mirror; but then we shall see face to face. Now my knowledge is partial; then it will be whole like God's knowledge of me

There are three things that last forever: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive them that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory,

For ever and ever.

Amen.
